All the News.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, JULY 3, 1905.

PRICE ONE CENT.

MUTINEERS FIRED ON BY WARSHIP; RUSSIANS PURSUE

Cruiser Shells Drop Around Crew of Potemkine's Torpedo Tender While They Try to Enter Kustenji Harbor-Volunteers Start to Sink Rebel Ship.

(By Associated Press.)

267, accompanying the Kniaz Potemkine, attempted to enter the port of Kustenji to-day.

The Roumanian cruiser Elizabetha fired on the torpedo boat, but failed to hit her.

The torpedo boat then retired.

ODESSA, July 3.—The Russian torpedo-boat Smetilvy, manned by a volunteer crew, has left this port to search for and attempt to torpedo the battle-ship Kniaz Potemkine, last reported in the hands of its mutinous crew at Kustenji, Roumania.

Estimates of the number killed during the fires and riotings of last war. week run as high as 6,000.

The exodus from Odessa continues. While the city is calmer, a

According to despatches received here German and British ships are being held off the port by the Consuls to take off foreign citizens in case

A British ship has offered hospitality to the Americans at Odessa. The surrender of the Georgi Pobiedonosetz was formally carried out this morning. The warship's officers returned from Nikolaieff, went on board and picked out the ringleaders of the mutiny and several of their followers, all of whom were sent ashore.

A torpedo-boat destroyer and a gunboat arrived here during the night, bringing Rear-Admiral Chouknin, Commander of the Black Sea

The torpedo boat destroyer upon her arrival here fired a blank shot across the bows of the British steamer, Cranley, lying off Fontana, for the purpose of taking off British subjects, if necessary.

The destroyer signalled the Cranley to accompany her inside the harbor. The Cranley complied, the destroyer in the meanwhile keeping her guns trained on the steamer. Later Russian officials took possession of the Cranley and searched her for revolutionary refugees.

The British Consul-General protested to the Governor, saying there occasion of the removal of the body of was no reason to suppose that any refugees were on board the Cranley It is presumed she will shortly be released.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Ambassador Meyer, at St. Petersburg, saying that Consul Heenan, at Odessa, reports that the battle-ship Georgi Pobiedonosetz has surrendered and is now in the hands of the authorities. The report also stated that the Kniaz Potemkine left Odessa Saturday evening, headed directly south toward Constantinople. Mr. Meyer's cablegram was received here a 9 A. M.

POTEMKINE'S CREW MUST SURRENDER OR FIGHT.

BUCHAREST, July 3.-The port authorities at Kustenji, Roumania have been instructed to call upon the 750 mutineers who are on board th Kniaz Potemkine to land from that vessel without arms, informing them that they would be treated as foreign deserters while in Roumania.

In the event of the refusal of the mutineers to submit to these condi tions or of hostile action against the town, the Roumanian warships wer ordered to use force.

There is much excitement on board the Russian battle-ship Kniaz Po temkine, where differences of opinion exist between the leaders, some o whom advocate landing in Roumania, while others are proposing to return to Russia and joining the other mutinous ships.

The Prefect of Kustenji permitted a delegation of the mutineers to enter the town and purchase provisions.

The sailors report that the Black Sea fleet not only did not try to cap ture the Kniaz Potemkine, but that the crews of the ships openly rejoice when the rebel battle-ship left Odessa. The crew of the Russian gunboat Psezouape, now at Kusteuji, me some of the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine ashore and fraternized with them, the sailors embracing one another. The Kniaz Potemkine is accompanied by a Russian torpedo boat.

About 300 Roumanian soldiers are being concentrated at Kustenii to meet eventualities and the Cabinet Ministers are proceeding there to-day to Coroner Investigating Death deal with the situation.

Major Negru, the military commandant at Kustendji, reports that he was received on board the Kniaz Potemkine by an engineer cadet, attended by a numerous guard. The cadet informed him that the murder of the seaman, Omilchuk, was merely a pretext for the revolt, 'I having been previously arranged by a revolutionary committee.

TURKS WILL FIRE ON POTEMKINE MUTINEERS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 3 .- Th Turkish officials at Anadoli-Kavak, Asia Minor, twelve miles north-northeast of Constantinople, at the entrance of the Bosphorus, are taking precautions to prevent the possible use o that port by the mutineers of the Knizz Potemkine.

The Turks will not permit the battle-ship to pass through the Bos

They even stopped the Russian guardship at Constantinople with a blank shot when returning with Ambassador Zinovioff after a short cruis in the Black Sea. M. Zinovioff landed and proceeded to Constantinople but the guardship was held until morning.

THIRD MUTINY IS QUICKLY SUBDUED.

CRONSTADT, July 3.-The crew of the Russian cruiser Minine refused to put to sea to-day with the other vessels of the active squadron, alleging that the age and bad condition of the Minine prevented her participation in gun practice and manoeuvring.

The ringleaders of this mutiny were arrested and the Minine was towed close to a fort, where she is now anchored.

BRITAIN WILL NOT SEND WARSHIPS TO ODESSA.

LONDON, July 3, 8 P. M.-In the House of Commons this afternoon Earl Percy, the Foreign Under Secretary, replying to a suggestion that friendly representations should be made to Russia proposing a temporary suspension of the treaty excluding foreign warships from the Black Sea, so that British vessels might safeguard the lives and property of British subjects at Odessa, said the present circumstances at Odessa did not afford sufficient grounds for such a departure from the treaty rules governing the Black Sea. No. 211 East Fifty-first street, New

There was nothing to show that the Russian Government had not York, sought to regain possession of his adequate means for protecting British subjects in common with the rest of the population, nor that the arrival of British warships would improve the

BUCHAREST, Roumania, July 3.—The Russian torpedo boat No. NEW STRIKE AND RIOTS IN ST. PETERSBURG.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 3.—The strike of the Nevsky shipyards, which | gel on a Sunday-school picnic three began yesterday, became general this morning. Between 5,000 and 6,000 years ago. Prior to her marriage she strikers held a meeting in the courtyard of the works, speeches detailing knew Kavanaugh the men's griewances were delivered and subsequently the men attempted Thereupon the authorities requisitioned three hundred Cossacks, who dispersed the men with the free use of their whips.

To-day the workmen of the port of St. Petersburg, following the lead Last Thursday she again disappeared. of the Cronstadt workmen, left work, and commerce is at a standstill and Her husband says that Kavanaugh met all the yards of the Neva are idle. Cronstadt resembles a city in time of

The streets are patrolled by Cossacks, infantry and sailors. It is rumored that the crew of the battle-ship Alexander II. have mutinied and sailed away with the vessel, but a telephone message from Cronstadt says this is not true.

LOOMIS IN PARIS FOR PAUL JONES CEREMONIES

Presents to Premier Rouvier It Was the Dachshund that

United States.

They were accompanied by the American naval staff in full uniform. The meetir was most cordial.

comier expressed the Governitors, and Mr. Loomis presented a personal mest ge of esteem from the late sonal mest ge of esteem from the late Secretary Hay to M. Rouvier, given on the eye of Mr. Loomis's departure. M. Rouvier paid a notable tribute to Mr. Hay's services in international affairs. Later the American officials visited the Ministry of Marine, where they were extertained by Minister Thomson. The fofficial calls will continue this Atternoon.

Atternoon.

CHERBOURG, France, July 3.—Elaborate preparations have been made for the Franco-American festivities to-morrow, including games between the French and American saflors, a concert and expression.

French and American sallors, a concert and a procession.

The townspeople speak in high terms of the bearing of the American sallors.

A number of bluejackets landed here yesterday and mingled with the crowds sitting in the open cafes, but there was not a single case of drunkenness or disorder. This is in marked contrast with the conduct of other visiting sallors.

A delegation of French officers visited the American squadron to-day and presented an invitation to attend a "Punch," which the Americans accepted. The French visitors were entered. The French visitors were enter-ained and inspected the American ships of Louisa Bietz at Private Sanitarium.

GIRL'S FALL FROM HOSPITAL WINDOW FATAL

Miss Louisa Bietz, twenty-six years old, died to-day at Dr. Welles's private sanitarium, No. 945 St. Mark's avenue Brooklyn, as the result of injuries sustained by falling from a third-story window of the place on Friday. Coroner Williams has ordered an investigation of the circumstances. Some three weeks ago Miss Bietz was transferred to the sanitarium from the King's Fark Asylum, where she wat taken by her parents, who live at No. 102 Introduced the Breoklyn, to be treated for melancholla.

On Friday last Miss Bietz, it is said, went to a third-story window in the sanitarium, and was leaning against a screen when it gave way. She fell headlong, landing in the court below and fracturing her skull.

These are the facts as reported to the Coroner's office. The authorities at the sanitarium refused to talk to reporters.

WHOLE DAMM FAMILY, ALSO

DOG, IN COURT

husband vesterday. She complained that he had beaten her. Assuming her contention to be true, Damm is stronger than he looks.

When his name was called in court to-day Damm arose from a seat outside the rail and started for the bench, carrying the Damm dog. Close behind him came Mrs. Damm and following Mrs. Damm were the four Damm chil-dren. ment's welcome to the American vis- side the rail and started for the bench, Damm Family Row.

Damm placed the dog on the bridge between his feet and caught it amidships with his ankles. Thus placed it blocked the whole runway and the po licemen made him place it diagonally so that they could pass back and fort

All for the Damm Dog.

Mrs. Damm told her story. It was all on account of the dog, she said Herman, in the kindness of his heart. brought the dachshund home Saturday night, although there is barely room in the Damm flat at No. 61 East One Hundred and Tenth street for the "But he didn't take up much room.

protested Herman Damm. "Judge," declared Mrs. Damm, "when made trouble about the dog he hit me on the face."

All for the Damm Dog.

spot. He said his wife did it with a epot. He said his wife did it with a tea-kettie.

One of the Damm children began to cry and the others joined in. The dog began to howl. Mrs. Damm began to talk, and there was a regular Damm row all around.

"Run along home," cried Magistrate Whitman in desperation. "Settle your own Damm family troubles."

The last seen of the Damm family Herman had a firm grip on one end of the dog and his wife had a firm grip on the other.

HAY'S DAUGHTER REACHES ENGLAND.

LONDON, July 3 .-- Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney (Helen Hay) arrived at Plymouth to-day on the North German Lloyd steamship Kronpring Wilhelm A memorial service for the late Secretary Hay will be held in St. Paul's Cathedral Wednesday afternoon. It will transferred to the sanitarium from the 1801, in memory of President McKinley The service will be fully choral, but the exact details will not be finally settled until Mrs. Payne Whitney, daughter of the late Secretary, has been consulted on her arrival here this evening. Representatives of King Edward and other members of the royal family undoubtedly will attend.

FIGHT FOR WIFE IN A RAILROAD SIGNAL TOWER

of Four Months with Martin Kavanaugh.

Police Department to-day learned the particulars of a desperate hand-to-hand fight which occurred Saturday night in a signal tower of the New York Central Railroad a mile north of this city. wife, who was in the signal tower with Martin Kayanaugh, the signal man on guard. Kavanaugh lives at No. North Hamilton street, this city.

on Feb. 19 last. The bride was only nineteen years old. Her maiden name Dobbs, is in the ice business at West Park, six miles north of Poughkeepsie.

four times since their marriage. Two months ago he followed her to Pough-

There was Poughkeepsie. Saturday the husband who accompanied him to the tower where Martin was on duty, with the pretty wife of Von Fleugel sitting by his side. The husband, worked up to a high nitch of excitement, rushed into the signal tower and commanded his wife to "I can't go unless Martin tells me

Thereupon her husband seized her and aftempted to carry her from the place. She resisted and there was a mighty struggle between them. She caucht hold of the door frame. He broke her hold and the two half fell and half walked down the stairs and rolled over and ver on the railroad track.

The hour was shortly after midnight. An express train was rushing down Presents to Premier Rouvier Message Given Him by Secretary Hay.

Started the Damm Trouble, It Appears.

Started the Damm Trouble, It Appears.

Started the Damm Trouble, It Appears.

The ubiquitous Damm family bobbed up in Harlem Police Court to-day—the whiche Damm family, to wit.: Herman Damy him to the city, and they went to the Elberon Hotel. Von Fleugel went to the Elberon Mrs. Dobbs arrived and the Damm dog, the same being a dachshund.

The ubiquitous Damm family bobbed up in Harlem Police Court to-day—the whiche Damm family, to wit.: Herman Damm, his wife, Marie, four children and the Damm dog, the same being a dachshund.

Was the Dachshund that

Started the Damm Trouble, It Appears.

The ubiquitous Damm family bobbed up in Harlem Police Court to-day—the place. Although declaring that she hated her husband she consented to accompany him to the city, and they went to the Elberon Hotel. Von Fleugel went to Police Head dachshund.

Won Fleugel went to Police City Judge Morschauser, who held him on a charge of disorderly conduct and said: "I lintend to see that you are not started the Damm day the couple of the track and the couple of the rack and the sepained to every the place. Although declaring that she hated her husband she consented to accompany him to the city, and they went to the Elberon Hotel. Von Fleugel went to Police Head dachshund.

Won Fleugel went to Police City Judge Morschauser, who held him on a charge of disorderly conduct and said: "I lintend to see that you are not shared her husband vesterday. She complained said: "I lintend to see that you are not shared her husband vesterday. She complained to enter that tower the place. Although declaring that she hated her husband she consented to t in Death of Mrs. Stevens in Dobbs Ferry.

WIFE KILLED,

HUSBAND AND CHILD HURT

DOBES FERRY, July 3 .- In a runaway accident here last night Mrs. Alexander Stevens, of this place, was killed. the sleeve of his shirt and displayed upon his left arm a vivid black and blue her husband was dangerously injured of coffee, which was like poison to upon his left arm a vivid black and blue ter Margaret, eleven years old, was severely hurt. On Ashford avenue the But such was my love for it that I borse took fright and ran away, and could not get my own consent to give Mr. Stevens was unable to regain con- it up for some time, and continued and the carriage was upset. The occu- Food Coffee. pants were thrown violently into the "I had the new food drink carefully roadway, and Mrs. Stevens, who struck prepared according to directions, and on her head, had her skull fractured and was instantly killed. Mr. Stevens was insensible when picked up, and he was still in that condition in the Dobbe Ferry Hospital to-day. The child is not o badly hurt and will recover. Mr. Stevens is connected with the drygoods firm of Aitken, Son & Co., of No. soon as the drug effect of the old cof-73 Broadway, New York City. A man fee was removed and the Postum was killed several years ago in a run-away accident at the same corner and felt. My nervous troubles were n the same manner, his carriage being overturned. The avenue is very narrow, and although the property-owners along low always came to soothe and the thoroughfare have offered to give strengthen me after I had drunk Posthe thoroughfare have offered to give up a portion of their land so that the avenue might be widened the proposi-tion has always been voted down by fore. I have now used Postum Cofthe authorities.

NO FIREWORKS AT OYSTER BAY OYSTER BAY, L. I., July 3 .- The display of fireworks, which is always the feature of the Fourth of July celebration at Sagamore Hill, has been postponed until next Saturday owing to the death of Secretary Hay, as President Roosevelt will be absent at the funeral in Cleveland.

"REVENGE," LAST WORD OF SUICIDE

Before Ending Life After Being Beaten.

of Nathan Raivitz, a young Russian who committed suicide early to-day by taking poison. The note was addressed to Sam Greenberg, No. 163 Broome street, with whom Raivitz and his mother lived.

Raivitz was a hard-working young man, nineteen years old, who had, by careful saving, accumulated $150. This money he invested in a soda water stand, which he, in partnership with a man named Shapiro, ran at the cor-The soda water business failed to come up to the expectations of the they were elsewhere. young man, and recently he had imthe sum he put into the business. This Shapiro is said to have refused, of-$150 for the half of the business, and, according to the story the police learned, Shapiro and his wife set upon Raivitz during a quarrel and beat him. Shapiro again offered $75, but Raivitz refused woman promised to return to New York. and went home. There he asked Greenberg to go with him to an east side bath, and on returning home early today went to his room.

Mrs. Raivitz, the young man's mother, arrived here looking for his wife and on going to wake him to-day, found a trunk in front of the door, which was closed. Forcing the door, she found her son dead in bed. A glass which had The suicide left two notes, one to his uncle, Nathan Raivitz, and the other to Greenberg, asking him to take re-

WARSHIP SAVES 618 FROM WRECK OF STEAMSHIP

Passengers on French Vessel Chodoc in Peril, Menaced by Savages.

ADEN, Arabia. July 3.-The Russian auxiliary cruiser Rion, formerly the Smolensk, arrived here to-day, having on board 618 persons from the French from Saigon, June for Bordeaux and Havre, which is ashore off Cape Guardafui, at the east angle of Somaliland, East Africa, at the mouth of the Gulf of Aden. The last port which the Chedoc touched at was Colombo, Ceylon, which she left June 19. The Rion, which was homeware bound from Batavia, was attracted by the signals of the survivors, who man nged to get ashore at Cape Guardaful despite the hostility of the natives. Only a few lives were lost during the transfer of the passengers and crew from the Chodoc to the shore. The Chodoc is owned by the Compagnie Nationale de Navigation, of Marseilles. She is of 2,541 tons net and was

IN COLONEL'S TOWN Things Happen.

From the home of the famous "Keyhnel Keeyartah of Cartersville, away down South, comes an enthusiastic letter about Postum.

"I was in very delicate health, suffering from indigestion and a nervous trouble so severe that I could hardly sleep. The doctor ordered me to discontinue the use of the old kind trol of the animal. At Storms street the to suffer, till my father one day horse made a short turn into the street brought home a package of Postum > gave it a fair trial. It proved to have a rich flavor and made a healthy, wholesome and delightful drink. To my taste the addition of cream greatly improves it. "My health began to improve as

Coffee had time to make its influence speedily relieved and the sleep which the old coffee drove from my pil tum-in a very short time I began to fee for several years and like it better and find it more beneficial than when I first began. It is an anspeakable joy to be relieved of the given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

PHILADELPHIA RAIDS CATCH HIGH AND LOW

Von Fleugel Found His Bride Raivitz Wrote Note to Friend Cream as Well as the Dregs of Society Gathered in by Police.

> lice raid of recent years in any great American city has been so productive of tragic consequences to so many persons as the events of Saturday night

The scandals that will gro the drag net peformance of the police inmates women were found who nac to them. Married women were ner of Grand and Norfolk streets. caught in these houses with men, also young girls whose parents believed

The police showed portuned Shapiro to buy him out for for the work they had to do for the first time in years by making them showed most unholy glee when they go to Shapiro to again urge him to give women who did not belong to the world helping them conceal their identities, did all they could to expose them. How desperate was the plight of many nade by more than one to kill herself. one house a well-dressed young woan of evident refinement stripped her-hi of her magnineent jewels and im-ored the police to take them and let

In another house a girl eighteen years ld confessed that she belonged to a good Philadelphia family, and when th one Philadeiphia family, and when the olice would not release her she pulled knife from her pocket and stabbed erself. She did not inflict a dangerous round. She was taken to a hospital, s was another young married woman tho threw herself down a flight of tairs when she realized the situation he was in. she was in.

In a house on Oxford street four couples were found in evening dress. They had been to a theatre and they begged to be released.

"Our husbands will kill us!" they cried, and the men with them begged hard for the women, but it was no use. When the police started to take them away the women fainted and the men put up a desperate fight, but were overpowered and all bundled into a patrol wagon and taken away.

SEND POSTAL TO-NIGHT East Elmhurst N. Y. City THE IDEAL PLACE TO LIVE. Half Hour from Herald Square Each lot has water-front privileges. Bankers' Land & Mortgage Corp.

Save Clothes, Labor and Time

SST MANHATTAN AV BROOKLYN

MILLER'S SOAP

At all Grocers

Rough on Bed Bugs Knocks a Bed Bug silly. Liquid, Nozzle Cans, 150,25 ROUGH ON ROACHES, 150, 250 OUGH ON FLEAS, 250 OUCH ON RATS, 150, 250' DOUGH ON MOTH AND ANTS, 350 ALL AT DRUGGISTS E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J., U.S.A.

DOES DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION BOTHER YOU?

INDIGESTION BOTHER YOU?

So you know weat it is to enjoy a good square meal? Even if you feel like it, dare you satisfy your desire?

Digestion is one or one most complex functions of the human body, yet it is, too, the most simple. Digestion is simply the converting or food into a condition in which it can be added to the blood. When your system is overdone or run down. Rexall hyspersia Tablets, which are really a digestive treatment, readily set things right. First, the gastric tablets increase courefron of gastric juices and saturate the food and sour fermentation, and then, with the aid of the dysposia tablets, digestion goes on naturally—that's the whole scores on naturally—that's the whole scores on naturally—that's the whole scores of the property of any Rexall Store in New York, Brooking, Igrsey city and Newark.

Proud of Her Face

BARBERS SWINDLED BY FAKE LICENSES.

Commissioner Mike Saracena is agi-tated. Some bold, cruel and dastardly swindler, representing himself as an agent of the State Board of Barber nonev from barbers for bogus licenses. commissioner Saracena warns all barbody but him.

Already he knows of $4 gone astray-$2 each from two barbers who were deceived by the swindler. Commissioner Saracena employs no agents to collect Saracena employs no agents to collect money. He does the collecting himself. After July 10 he will have an office at Nos. 4 and 6 New Chambers street. From there he will send out a corps of subordinates to find what barbers in Greater New York are shaving without licenses.

These agents will collect no money. They will warn barbers to take out license cards, and the barbers so warned nust pay the money for the cards to Commissioner Saracena at his office. Those who do not obey the law will be

Those who do not obey the law will be arrested.

Remember, barbers, you cannot barb unless you have a license, and you can-not have a legitimate license unless you consult Saracena. He has no under-

A LOVELY COMPLEXION

New York Lady Proves That Every Woman May Have It By

USING CUTICURA SOAP

Mrs. R. Reichenberg, wife of the well-known jeweller of 146 Fulton St., New York, says: "I had a friend who was justly proud of her complexion.
When saked what gave her such a brilliant and lovely complexion, she replied, 'A healthy woman can be sure of a fine skin if she will do as I do use plenty of Cuticura Soap and water.' She insisted that I follow her example, which I did with speedy conviction. I find that Cuticura Soap keeps the skin soft, white, and clear, and prevents redness and roughness."

Every day we have patients whose ye trouble might have been prevented f seen to in time. The safest way is to onsult our experienced Oculists:

Onsult Our experienced Occursts:

A. W. Brewster, M. D., 217 B'way,
8 years Brooklyn Eye and Ear Dispensary.)
Edw. Johnson, M. D., 1345 B'way,
(Many years in private practice.)
M. Kenyon, M. D., 223 Sixth Av.
(8 years Manhattan Eye and Ear Hospital.)
Frank G. Esson, M. D., 350 Sixth Av.
(5 years New York Eye and Ear Hospital.)
NO CHARGE except for glasses, and that moderate. Ehrlich & Sons

Watches,

Jewelry, CASH OR CREDIT. Quick Delivery, No Employer's Reference Required, 'all or write for ill'd catalogue No. 44 L. W. SWEET & CO.

87-39 MAIDEN LANE. New York. 1073 THIRD AVE., 1075 THIRD AVE., 107 FULUTON ST., Brooklyn. 176 NEWARK AV., Jersey City.

Ont-of-town Patronage Solicited.

Fourth of July

Will bring the usual crop of accidents to juvenile Americans. Burns, bumps oitle of POND'S EXTRACT handy for mergencies. It will save many a doc-

Do not accept witch haze! as a substitute. On analysis of seventy samples f witch hazel purchased from asmany eading gruggist and department stores fifty-the were found to contain Wood Alcohol (poison), Formaldehyde (poison), or both. FOND'S EXTRACT costs, more, but if you value your life and health it is worth the difference.

on the window when you buy cigars. United Cigar Stores Co.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge Will surely expel worms

PERSONALS.

PPENHEIMER, JOHANNA (unmarried

LAUNDRY WANTS-MALE.